2. The transaction fees are cumulative based on the base and the variable fee; the maximum fee refers to the sum thereof. One basis point (bp) corresponds to 1/10,000 of the money amount per trade and side in EUR.
3. The transaction fees are calculated separately for every market segment and every type of participant, with the trading phase and the maximum limit being taken into account separately for every trade and side. Trades within the course of a volatility interruption in continuous trading are allocated to continuous trading. Trades in planned auctions (opening, intraday, closing auctions), trades in the trading phase Trade at Close and trades in the continuous auction are allocated to auction trading.
4. MiFID market makers are charged the principal fees of the corresponding segment as transaction fees, and in the prime market, the principal fees of the commitment level selected are charged (cf. para 8). Under stressed market conditions pursuant to Article 6 (1) b) of Delegated Regulation (EU) 2017/578¹, MiFID market makers are charged the transaction fees for market makers of the corresponding segment.
5. The transaction fees for market makers or MiFID market maker apply only if the relevant commitments are met (cf. § 12 para 1 and § 13 paras 5, 7 and 8). If the commitments are not met, the principal fees of the corresponding segment are charged; in the prime market, the principal fees of the commitment level selected are charged (cf. para 8). These principal fees are also charged to market makers or MiFID market makers for trades executed based on orders with the execution attributes "fill-or-kill" or "immediate-or-cancel".
6. The trading architecture Xetra® T7 provides exchange members with the account "riskless principal" for agent orders and trades they carry out in their own name for technical clearing reasons. All trades executed through this account are deemed agent trades and the corresponding fees for agent trades are invoiced.
